ENRICHING EXPERIENCES FOR OUR GUESTS AND OUR ENVIRONMENT

We believe that a responsible meeting is not only what you experience in the meeting room but also knowing that your hotel respects the destination around it.

We're proud to partner the leaders in geotourism, the National Geographic Center for Sustainable Destinations. Our ambition is that guests enjoy enriching experiences that reveal what makes a place truly special – its heritage, culture and tradition – and the importance of protecting it.

At InterContinental we use a holistic approach to being a responsible business: to work from the grass roots up, recognising each individual hotel team as the experts best placed to use their local knowledge for developing community and environmental initiatives that meet the specific needs of the destination. This Insider Collection gives delegates access to some of these unique experiences, and for those meetings that stay in the meeting room, you can be assured our hotel is working behind the scenes to protect what is special about the place for fellow travellers.

SPEND PART OF YOUR MEETING AT RAFFLES HOUSE

For an elegant dinner, cocktail reception or an off-site meeting, Raffles House is steeped in history. During their visit delegates can enjoy a tour of Canning Fort and learn about this mysterious house.

It was built by Sir Stamford Raffles (Founder of Singapore) on Fort Canning Hill. He enjoyed its view, but the Malays called it 'Forbidden Hill' believing it was the seat of royalty for rulers of Temasek (or 'Sea Town', an old name for Singapore) in the 1300s.

Later, Singapore's colonial leaders made their residences there, and the hill became a military base during the Second World War. Today, 14th Century relics and the Fort Gate, remnant of the fortress built in the 1860s, are reminders of Singapore's colonial past.

HELP LOCAL CHILDREN WITH SINGAPORE'S OLDEST CHARITY

For some rewarding time away from the meeting room, delegates are offered this rare chance to spend time in a very special home for children.

Melrose Home is run by The Children's Aid Society – one of Singapore's oldest philanthropic organizations. The home provides a supportive 'home from home' environment for children between the ages of 4 to 18 years old who need care and protection in a residential setting. These are children whose parents or family members are unable to look after them.

Delegates are invited to join the Home's team of volunteers to help organise recreational activities for the children, as well as spend some quality time with them. Your organisation can also make a financial contribution towards the charity's vital work.
