

Les Crayères

BY PARK%^o

We are delighted to welcome you to Les Crayères by Park90, now an official caveau of the Confrérie du Sabre d'Or, where we will embark on a remarkable champagne appreciation together. Our venue boasts one of the largest champagne lists in Singapore, featuring various styles of champagnes that indicate their terroir origin, grape percentage, and disgorgement date, along with large format champagnes.

Join us every Thursday at 6 PM for a intriguing sabrage act, a technique for opening a champagne bottle with a saber, used for ceremonial occasions.

Nomad launched the business with 2 products being a Kaluga Hybrid (the most sustainably farmed caviar in the world) and an Ossetra product. We believe we have found two of the finest farms in existence that not only have the best tasting and most naturally farmed caviar with the least preservatives but who also share our values of building a sustainable future. Kaluga Hybrid Caviar A perfect marriage of two sturgeon native to the Amur River basin, this beautiful farmed caviar is from the Huso Dauricus (a cousin to Beluga and considered the largest freshwater fish in the world) and Acipenser Schrenckii (Amur) sturgeon. Our Kaluga Hybrid caviar is harvested between 6- 8 years, salted and matured for a one month period before selling to our clients. Caviar is often also referred to as the superfood of the sea due to its numerous health benefits – one tablespoon of caviar contains approximately 30mg of potassium, 1000mg of Omega 3's, 37 IU of Vitamin D, 3.5MG of Vitamin B12 as well as calcium, phosphorus, selenium, protein, iron and magnesium.

Champagne

FRANCE

The term 'Champagne' was originally derived from the Latin name for countryside 'Campania', and dates back to the Middle Ages when the term began to refer to the countryside of northeast France. Throughout history, Champagne has been linked to stories of wartime, lavish imperial dining tables and its reputation as the favoured drink of the most powerful figures in history. Today, Champagne is seen as a sparkling wine that takes its name from the region in which it is produced. To be labelled as 'Champagne', a number of stringent regulations must be adhered to during the production process. This includes permitted grape varieties, pruning method, minimum alcohol levels, storage time and more.

Les Crayères by Park90 offers an exquisite range of both Iconic grande marques Champagne as well as artisanal grower Champagne. As Winston Churchill famously stated, "A single glass of Champagne imparts a feeling of exhilaration. The nerves are braced; the imagination is stirred; the wits become more nimble." High net-worth socialites will revel in the culture and versatility that Champagne has to offer.

Dom Pérignon

A Collection Beyond Compare

In the realm of luxury champagne, few names evoke as much reverence and sophistication as Dom Pérignon. Crafted by the esteemed champagne house Moët & Chandon, Dom Pérignon represents the epitome of excellence, embodying centuries of tradition, mastery, and innovation in the art of champagne making.

A Heritage of Excellence

Named after the Benedictine monk Dom Pérignon, a visionary figure in the Champagne region during the 17th century, Dom Pérignon champagne is a testament to its namesake's relentless pursuit of perfection. Each bottle encapsulates the essence of its terroir, reflecting the unique characteristics of the grapes harvested from the finest vineyards in Champagne.

The Dom Pérignon Collection: Unparalleled Quality and Prestige

Our exclusive collection of Dom Pérignon champagne showcases the pinnacle of the brand's craftsmanship and artistry. From the iconic Dom Pérignon Vintage to the rare and exquisite Dom Pérignon Rosé, each expression in our collection is a celebration of luxury and refinement.

GRAND VIN DE CHAMPAGNE

Bérèche & Fils

PROPRIÉTAIRES DE VIGNES

This old domaine was founded in 1847. Yet, it has been the innovative work of young Raphaël and Vincent Bérèche that has made this one of the most talked about Champagne houses, first among France's sommeliers, cavistes and connoisseurs and now their counterparts in the United States. And Raphaël's and Vincent's skillful barrel aging and use of cork closures, rather than crown caps, for the secondary fermentation makes the most of this site-derived complexity, in a compellingly expressive, complex and refined range of cuvées.

CHAMPAGNE
HENRI GIRAUD

Henri Giraud is an independent and family-owned Champagne house that has written itself into a grower movement. The masterpieces actually begin in the nearby Argonne forest, where ancient oak trees provide the wood for the house's special oak barrels used in production and, according to Claude Giraud, the barrel is the piece that completes the house's Champagnes. The very first Argonne to see the light of day came from the 2002 vintage, and since then, seven vintages have been released, with the 2015 Argonne representing only the eighth release - a release of inherent rarity. It has not been possible to confirm exactly how many bottles were produced in 2015, but according to Wine Advocate, 8,000 bottles of 2004 Argonne and 4,000 bottles of 2008 Argonne were produced.

CHAMPAGNE

Neighbours in Le Mesnil-sur-Oger, in the heart of the Chardonnay-producing Côte des Blancs, Salon and Delamotte became part of Bernard Hinault's Laurent-Perrier group in 1986 and were joined in 1988. Depond has been president since 1997 but with the company for 30 years.

Salon is a cult blanc de blancs, released after 10 years on its lees, made from its own 1ha single vineyard plus grapes sourced from 20 other grand cru sites in Le Mesnil. Production is about 60,000 bottles only in the best years; in the past century just 37 vintages were released.

Delamotte, founded in 1760, is one of the oldest houses in Champagne, producing about 800,000 bottles annually – small when compared with other brands in the Laurent-Perrier group, such as Moët & Chandon with 40 million. While Delamotte makes a rosé and a non-vintage blend, its star wines are the NV and vintage blanc de blancs.

MONTAGNE DE REIMS

Nestled between the Marne and Vesle Rivers, the Montagne de Reims unfolds as a picturesque landscape of forests and vineyards, stretching 30km east-west and 6-10km north-south.

Vineyards blanket its western and northern slopes, from Louvois to Villers-Allerand, embracing the limestone terrain.

Predominantly planted with Pinot Noir, with Chardonnay also cultivated in Trépail and Villers-Marmery, these vineyards yield wines known for their robustness, crisp palate, and fragrant nose, embodying the essence of Champagne.

VALLÉE DE LA MARNE

The Marne Valley vineyards unfold their beauty from Tours-sur-Marne to Epernay, tracing the river's banks with a poetic grace. Along this enchanting route, the land rises and falls in gentle undulations, mirroring the Marne's meandering path. At times, the vineyards draw close to the water, as if captivated by its emerald hues; at others, they retreat into the embrace of picturesque hollows.

Among these hallowed grounds, Aÿ reigns supreme, its Pinot Noir, locally known as the Pinot Vert Doré, yielding wines of unparalleled depth and finesse. Mareuil follows suit, lending its own distinguished charm to the blend.

In the legendary village of Hautvillers, where the art of Champagne-making is said to have been born under the guidance of Dom Pérignon, the Pinot Meunier holds sway, gracing the landscape with its timeless elegance. Beyond, in Dizey, Champillon, and Cumières, the Pinot Noir joins its ranks, adding complexity to the blend.

Across the Epernay region, the Pinot Meunier reigns supreme, adorning the slopes with both old and young vines, from Pierry to Aablois and from Brigny-Vaudancourt to Mancy. Here, the wines bear the imprint of their picturesque surroundings, offering a harmonious balance of body and freshness coveted by Champagne connoisseurs.

CÔTE DES BLANCS

The Côte des Blancs, a prized segment of the Champagne vineyard, runs from northeast to southwest, intersecting the Marne Valley near Epernay. Spanning 10-15 kilometers, its chalk-laden slopes are predominantly adorned with Chardonnay vines, except for Vertus in the south, where Pinot Noir also thrives.

Renowned for its Blanc de Blancs, the Côte des Blancs contributes to the prestigious cuvées of Champagne Houses, blending its exquisite Chardonnay with the robust Blanc de Noirs from the Montagne de Reims and the Marne Valley.

CÔTE DES BAR

The Côte des Bar, nestled in the southern reaches of the Champagne region, boasts Jurassic slopes resting atop Kimmeridgian limestone bedrock. This enchanting landscape is woven with verdant valleys that intertwine with those of the Seine and Aube rivers, creating a picturesque mosaic of vineyards with diverse exposures.

Here, the Pinot Noir reigns supreme, thriving under the harmonious influence of climate, geology, and meticulous vine cultivation. The resulting wines exhibit a unique lightness coveted by the skilled blenders of Champagne's esteemed Houses.
