

SAVOUR A TASTE OF MODERNITY WITH 10 NEW SIGNATURES AT MAN FU YUAN

Singapore, April 2018 – A stalwart in the Cantonese fine dining scene in Singapore, Man Fu Yuan unveils a new collection of 10 Chef's signatures carefully curated by Executive Chef Eric Neo.

“My travel experiences play a central part in my cooking, and encounters with food never fail to jolt my imagination and creativity”, says Chef Eric. “The result is a fine selection of 10 dishes that translate my travel experiences into cuisine – western ingredients such as foie gras and caviar with Chinese cooking; the juxtaposition of firm and soft textures; sweet with savoury; and elements of a dish that allow guests to interact and experience their food.”

Guests may delight in an exquisite showcase of flavours that present an artful balance of modern palates with traditional Cantonese craftsmanship. Highlights include pan-fried foie gras with suckling pig in crêpe; Mongolian-style grain-fed Australian beef prime rib; tiger prawn vermicelli in superior broth and Chinese wine; mango passionfruit prawns topped with caviar; and miso shoyu baked cod with scrambled egg white.

Crafted with finesse, these innovative new signature dishes are individually plated and served to guests, allowing for a refined dining experience underpinned by authentic Cantonese culinary techniques with a touch of modernity.

Traditions are not forgotten and guests may also order from a selection of perennial Cantonese classics including the new Kagoshima pork belly char siew; signature Longjing tea-smoked duck; bird's nest soup with abalone; braised two-head Australian abalone; and handmade minced pork noodles.

Elevate the culinary presentations with a handpicked selection of quality wines from renowned regions, passionate growers and boutique wineries. Tea connoisseurs will also be pleased with the sophisticated showcase of nine premium teas presented in an exquisite, individually-served tea set that provide an aromatic journey to uplift the dining experience at Man Fu Yuan.
